Aerial view of Sherman High School by Harry Hendricks

The theme, "Camera Views at the Turn of the Century," prompted the staff photographer to start a new half-century with a really different view of Sherman High School.

OF

THE STAFF

The Staff and the Student Council study constantly the problem of between-classes traffic in Sherman High School. Although the picture here indicates that it is a pleasant problem, the size of the student body creates congestion on the narrow stairways.

MR. ED

Mr. Ed Stephenson, in charge of maintenance for the Sherman schools is a VIP (Very Important Person) around Sherman High School. Actors and audiences are very much aware of his work in the beautiful sets built for the speech department. For such contributions and for his pleasant "good morning", Mr. Ed is much loved by Sherman High students.

Bedlam at Noon

Eleven fiifty-nine a. m. and all's well at Sherman High. At least all appears well. But in the air is a tenseness that is electrifying. The seconds tick by, and then—the clamor of a bell, the shuffle of feet, and SHS is in an uproar.

It's noon in Sherman High. It's every man for himself. There's a stampede through the halls, a pile-up at the doors. Pennell, Wade, and Taylor come out of study hall in a T formation. They zoom down the hall sending eighth graders in every direction. Charlie Howard is taking the steps seven at a time. One word is echoed through the halls,—"Hamburgers!"

Outside, the pound of roaring motors mixes with the numerous other pleasant sounds to form a mild bedlam. Ernie Morris roars down the street putting quite a few gray hairs in adult heads and increasing the agility of youthful pedestrians. This and many other confusing sights can be seen.

Now it is 12:45, and the calm students of SHS slowly stroll back to school as they sip their delicious malts or munch that crispy buttered popcorn. Yes, another noon hour is drawing to a close at Sherman High. Again the bewildered residents of of South Crockett gaze upon their paper-littered lawns and prayerfully mutter that famous phrase, "Give me strength."

WILLIAM BUCKLEY.

Bill Tilden

Dear Jackie,
Here's wishing the best of luck to a real swell boy. Yo bi, I think you are one of the swellest and bravest boys I know. Be sure and always stay as nice and friendly as you are now. If you do you will never fail.

Luck,

Another district winner, with a district record of seven wins and one loss and a season's record of fifteen wins and five losses. Sherman High is proud of Coach Pitts and his "B" team!

BASKETBALL, "C" SQUAD

A season's record of eight wins and four losses is evidence of a future "A" team, with a membership roster of many of the foregoing names, that will be the pride of Sherman High School.

THE BEARCAT GOLF TEAM

Second Row: Jimmy Robinson, Philip Deck, Joe Wolfe.

Third Row: Frank Vogt, Benny Schwartz, Joe Graves, Bob Hughes.

Another consistent winner at Sherman High School is the golf team. This is the third straight year that they have won District 7AA. The team entered the regional meet at Dallas at the Tenison Courts, and they made a good showing. Another strong team is expected next year because of the fact that there are no lettering players graduating. Letter members of the team are Herbert Twyford, Joe Graves, Philip Deck, and Joe Wolf.

Each year the girls' physical education classes present an all-girl assembly for the purpose of selecting a representative with the best posture from each class. The 1951 program was built around the theme of "The History of the Dance for the Last 100 Years." Dances such as the minuet, the waltz, the samba, the jitterbug, the Bowery dance, and the Charleston, were presented. The picture at the right shows Pat Etter and Mary Jo Wyatt in a scene from the Charleston.

Southern Association of Student Councils
Oklahoma City

North Texas Youth Conference at which the Sherman Student Council was elected President
Dallas

Texas Association of Student Councils
Dallas

Invitation to lead a discussion at the Southern Association of Student Councils at Shreveport next fall.

Sherman High School remains the hub of Council activities, however, with a Safety-Drive campaign, parties for new students, Mrs. Tucker's box-tops collection for the Activity Fund, magazine subscriptions campaign for the Activity Fund, and a program for the Rotary Club among a few of the projects.

EVERYDAY EVENTS

Football players in frilly aprons are not an uncommon sight at Sherman High School. A luncheon for the Executive Committee of the PTA was expertly served by this general homemaking class.

A group of fourth year math students decorate the traditional Math Club Christmas tree in the front hall.

Pat Etter and Mary Jo Wyatt give a close-up of what mother looked like back in the daring '20's with cloche hats and flapper dresses.

Some more of the Charleston Girls who performed for the all-girl assembly.

Bobbye Bradley signs her name to the "Freedom Charter" as other interested students await their turns.

Co-captains of the football team, Nig Pennell and Jack Wade, present "Ye Ole Battle Axe" to the school after the Bearcats won it in their defeat of Denison in the Turkey Day game.

Normalin Nowlin's recitation to Joe Edwards, teacher, is the formula for the Bearcat victory over Hillsboro.

Maxine Hightower, Patsy McClendon, and Dorothy McMakin hope for a strike at the regular meeting of the Bowling Club.

A group of initiates enjoy their meal at the Pecan House prior to their initiation into the National Honor Society.

Barbara Wible appears almost unrecognizable in her role in the play, "The Bathroom Door," which the Junior Class presented in assembly.

The "Texanettes" show their versatility as they perform for a large audience at the Thanksgiving game.

A group of performers on the program which the Sophomore Class sponsored for assembly on Saint Valentine's Day.

Two cheer leaders from Highland Park, members of a friendship team, prepare to lead the Sherman High student body in a yell.

Greta Mode and Mary Claude Atnip carry the flags in all marching performances of the band.

Head Texanette and Drum Major, Frances Bloomer.

A group of teachers and Student Council members enjoy tea and cookies at the tea for the faculty sponsored by the Council.

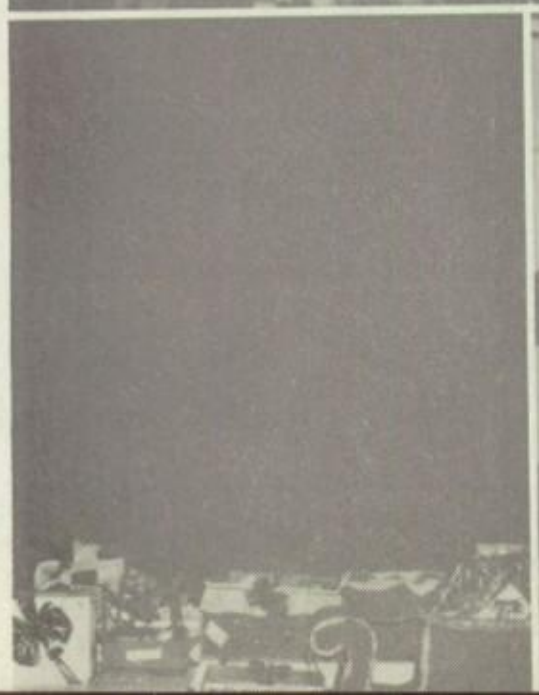
Jerry Monroe, Marvin Cooper, Bob McCaleb, andGene Ritchie put on their famous hillbilly act—here: "That Old Mountain Dew."

As Martha Kincaid and Barbara Wible look on, Nurse Juanita Wise says that the only cure for Bill Helton is a Scottie—at the bi-district pep rally.

In observance of United Nations week, Robert Oglesby accepts the blue flag for the school from the President of the International Relations Club, Mary Ann Dykes.

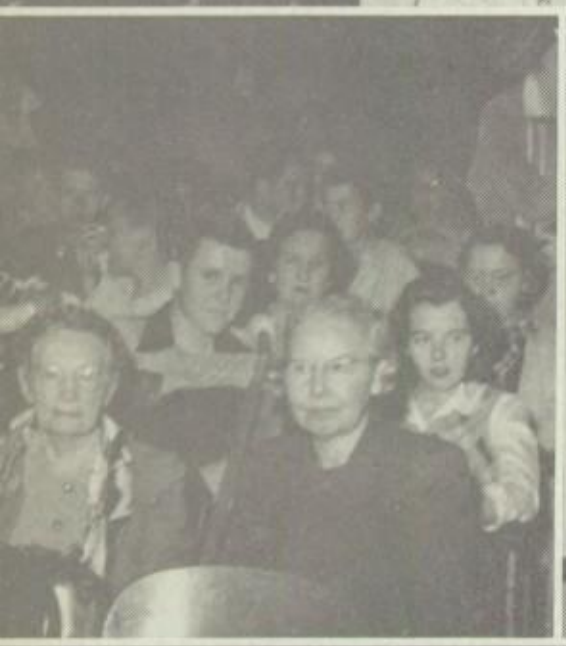
Cheer leaders Martha Jarvis and Max Cook.

The Christmas boxes, sponsored by the National Honor Society and fixed by each homeroom, prove the willingness of SHS students to give to the needy.



Mr. Rodgers, orchestra director, seems very interested in the French horn player.

Jimmie Risk serves at the Student Council tea for the faculty and members of the Council as a group of the homemaking class, which prepared for the tea, look on.



Mrs. Kitty Hopson, adopted by Miss Noble's homeroom, attends the Christmas assembly.

"Joy to the World! The Lord is Come!" rings through the halls of SHS as the A Capella Choir does its traditional carolling just before the holidays.

Coach Anderson gives the Bearcats a pep talk at the Highland Park pep rally. "Doc" Brigham and Coach Sory look on.

The color guard from Perrin Field present the United Nations flag at the impressive ceremony on United Nations Day.

A few orchestra members demonstrate what can happen when musicians get together.

Informal gatherings in the ballroom at the Municipal Building just before the Variety Show.

Queen Ann and King John and their court at the Variety Show.

Another scene from the Student Council party for new students.

The Queen receives her crown.

The group of students who come from Dorchester to Sherman High School, in their own school bus.

"Angel" Raymond Sledge in the Math Club assembly.

Mr. Landolt congratulates the Bearcats after the Highland Park victory.

Mr. Davis presents, on behalf of the Sherman High Staff, a Christmas remembrance to the janitors.

A DEALER YOU CAN DEPEND UPON

THE PASSING OF THE YEARS BRINGS MANY CHANGES IN OUR WORLD. THE HUMAN BODY GROWS OLDER AND STRONGER . . . OR OLDER AND WEAKER.

SOME BODIES CEASE TO FUNCTION, BUT THE VOIDS THUS CREATED ARE FILLED TO OVERFLOWING WITH NEW LIFE.

* * * *

THESE FACTS — THAT WE RECOGNIZE ONLY TOO WELL — HAVE A DEFINITE PARALLEL IN TODAY'S BUSINESS WORLD.

THERE ARE MANY CHANGES . . . SOME BUSINESS FIRMS GROW OLDER; SOME CEASE TO FUNCTION; BUT THE VOIDS THUS CREATED ARE FILLED TO OVERFLOWING WITH NEW LIFE.

THIS IS WHY IT IS ENCOURAGING TO RUN A BUSINESS WHICH, DESPITE OCCASIONAL HARDSHIPS AND PROBLEMS, CONTINUES TO GROW AND BECOME STRONGER WITH THE YEARS.

AND WHY DO WE GROW? ASK ANY OF OUR THOUSANDS OF SATISFIED CUSTOMERS. THEY'LL SAY, "DAVIS IS A DEALER YOU CAN DEPEND UPON."
